Bruiser "Nemos" aka Chingy

02/27/2003 – 09/06/2020

Bruiser was just a little guy, but he had the biggest heart. He was a total Mama's boy and followed her everywhere she went. He was her little shadow and she loved it. He often kept watch on her in the hallway of their home so he would never lose sight of her. Throughout his many years, he gained lots of nicknames and he loved each and every one of them. He was the cutest, most handsome ladies' man you'd ever meet. He had a bubbly personality with a hint of spunk. He was never scared to show who was boss or who ran not only his house, but also Grandma's house. Some of his favorite things were his chippy paws, going to grammy's house, filling his tummy with his favorite foods & good baby treats then prancing to his bed and rolling on his back making playful growls, basking in the sunshine, naptime, and being a part of holiday cheer. Even though he wasn't always fond of dress-up time, he was a great sport. He always wanted his mama to be happy, so he would wear festive attire and pose for tons of holiday pics. He was what made the Mursch-Santiago holiday cards/pics always a smash. He was a fighter & always fought through any health scares because the power of love always healed his mind, body, and soul. He never liked anyone to be sad or mad. He was all about love and happiness. Even though he was a 'little little', he played a major part in our home, family, and hearts. Our hearts are missing a piece and we will forever miss our boy. We love you always & forever Chingy. Run free! XO
