Patches Lindsley

Patches 10/09/2013

Patches I love you so much. It broke my heart to have put you down. I did because I know you were not well. You had lost weight and were not able to put it back on. I loved you the moment Jackie brought you to me 18 years ago. I could not have asked for a better cat. You both have each other because she left not long after you did. I know she is up there watching over you until I see you again. Know that I think of you every day.

I will never forget you. You are with everyday. Beth
